VALIANT EFFORTS FROM NEIGHBORS AND SEAGOVILLE POLICE OFFICER RETRIEVE SLEEPING CHILDREN FROM BURNING HOME

SEAGOVILLE, TX- On the morning of August 25, 2018 around 1:41 AM, Seagoville Police Officer Sam Click was patrolling his assigned beat when he discovered the front of a duplex home engulfed in fire in the 700 block of Casa Grande Drive. He summoned for the Fire Department and the assistance of other police officers. Officer Click immediately ran to frantic persons outside the home. Officer Click gathered information that others were inside this flaming home asleep.

Officer Click forcibly entered a rear exterior door of the duplex. A sleeping adult resident was awake. Officer Click and other neighbors retrieved five sleeping children from inside the duplex and led them to safety. Their ages ranged from 10 years old to six months.

From the heroic actions of these neighbors and Officer Sam Click, all residents were safely removed from the duplex with no significant injuries reported. The Seagoville Fire Department extinguished the fire.
